COMMUNITY PRESS
Provo, Utah

We, the students, faculty and staff of Rowland Hall - St. Marks, wish to express our deepest appreciation to our Headmaster, Mr. William M. Purdy.

During his years of teaching and particularly as Headmaster for the 1969-1970 year, Mr. Purdy has demonstrated his true concern for the welfare of all of the students. Through his kind and considerate guidance he has gained the respect and affection of all.

In our expression of deep appreciation, we gratefully dedicate this yearbook to our Headmaster, Mr. William M. Purdy.

The Rt. Rev. Richard S. Watson

As president of the Board of Trustees, the Rt. Reverend Richard S. Watson, has a deep interest in the school. He offers guidance and direction essential to the welfare of the school.

The Board of Trustees seeks to establish objectives and policies, and assumes the responsibility for sound management of the school.

Administration

The purpose of a school is to provide an atmosphere in which each individual can recognize his own true worth. Under the direction of the administration, the faculty and staff enable the students to pursue their academic goals and achieve personal maturity.

The administration keeps the school running smoothly through periods of trial and triumph, and the students wish to express their deep appreciation for the opportunities that have been afforded them.

Junior Class

The Future Seniors of Rowland Hall - St. Marks are eagerly anticipating the privileges of next year. After the loyalty, leadership, and involvement they have shown this year in such things as the prom and the coffee house, they are more than entitled to it.

Middle School

Although the middle school is tucked quietly between the lower and the upper schools, its presence is a refreshing boon to Rowland Hall - St. Mark's.

Under the direction of their leader, Mr. Urhlaub, the fifth, sixth, and seventh graders are learning their way towards high school. While these bright young students are eagerly awaiting Upper School, we view their future as a lively and productive one.

CONTENT

"Heinsius, the keeper of the Library at Leyden in Holland, was mewed up in it all the year long; and that to which thy thinking should have bred a loathing, caused in him a greater liking. I no sooner (saith he) come into the Library, but I bolt the door to me, excluding lust, ambition, avarice, and all such vices, whose nurse is idleness, the mother of ignorance, and melancholy herself, and in the very lap of eternity, amongst so many divine souls, I take my seat, with so lofty a spirit and sweet content, that I pity all our great ones, and rich men that know not this business."
